

Argue Youth Are Entitled to accommodations

the supports youth with disabilities need to engage at every stage of the process & in court-ordered activities healthy development access to developmental supports and argue against anything that impedes healthy development Protect Youth from Harm by Arguing for decriminalization disability-related behavior has been misinterpreted as suspicious or criminal non-discrimination

youth with disabilities should have equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from programs, services, and activities mitigation

youth are less culpable due to disabilities